SIDE BY SIDE

Life is funny. Just when you think you've got all figured out, someone throws a differen angle at you. Another side of the story. Another way of looking at things. Take for example a simple disagreement with a friend what are the three sides? Yours, your friends and the truth. What about the way people describe you? There is your friends' opinion, you parents' opinions and your teachers' opinions Or how about an event at school? Some love i some say it was ok and still others will say the hated it. There are three sides to every story What side are you on?

Pictures Capture Time.
Past-Present-Future

As I look over my photo album.
I see myself small and cute.
I was held by mom or dad.
My smiling face said all I couldn't.

As I turn the pages.
and watch my passing ages.
I am amazed how fast
the time has passed.

Then I get to last year, last month,
and a picture just developed.
I am standing arm in arm with my friends.
We promised to be friends forever.

Now we are seniors and making future plans.
One friend is going to college in a far away land.

The other will be close by commuting back and forth.
Yet another has decided to work instead of school.

After four years or more,
will we still knock on each other's door?
Will I get married and have childeren, or live alone and on my own?

The past was secure.
Today I have my family
and friends for sure.
Tomorrow I will open
many more doors,
and my dreams
I know will soar.

PAST - PRESENT - FUTURE

Can you smile any harder Courtney?

We all dashed out of the doors at 11:05 from Mansfield High School, most of us were on our way to get all gussied up for our Big night out. The Salons & Barber shops were infested with MHS students getting their hair done,hoping no one else would have their style. We started to gather in the parking lot of the Mansfield Holiday Inn at about 6:00.

Photographs were being snapped left and right, and finally our big night had arrived. "You look great," "Oh my god, I love your dress,"

"You look so cute," was the language of the night. We all assembled into our seats with our closest friends, sat back and thought, 'it's times like these that will be stored in our memory banks forever.'

So little time
So much to do

Buying, bringing or none at all; it doesn't really matter here at "Lunch Lady Land" also known as MHS cafeteria. Indulging in anything from a bag of Doritos to cafeteria potato puffs, lunch is a time of "stuffing your face". Not only is lunch 20 minutes of eating but also a time to socialize with friends. Gossiping and making plans for our busy schedules is key to lunch time talk. "He said that she said that I said..."Uh oh, forgot to do your homework? Don't worry, you can do it at lunch: Math, English, Language, or History...lunch time is as good as any to do your assignment. The bell rings before you know it and we look forward to another day.

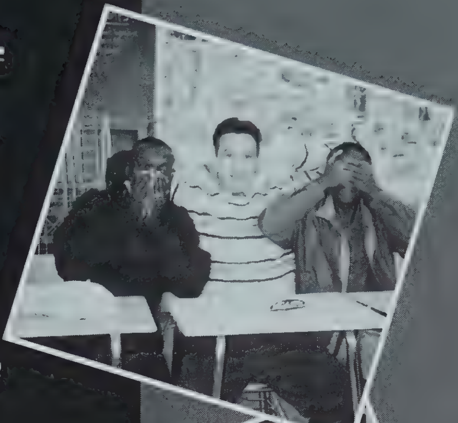
Side Kicks

We've all had many throughout the years. Some stay longer than others. We all have our good and bad times. Some of us make it through and some of us don't. But when it all comes down to it, we won't remember the four years of homework, tests and classroom lectures. We will all remember the people who stood by us in the end. One friend may be more dear than ten or ten may be more dear than one. In a friendship, there isn"t another file.

isn't just one or two sides, but rather three sides: Yours, mine and ours...

The gang is all here!

I speak of no test, I hear of no test, I see no test.



Aren't I so cute?

I'm cool, I'm calm, I'm collected.

Mansfield High School offers foreign exchange trips to Spanish and French speaking countries. Adding in the English factor gives us three sides to the language story. Our most recent trip was to La Fortuna, Costa Rica. Ms. McGrail travelled with ten students from MHS to reunite them with their Costa Rican brothers and sisters. During their stay they experienced another culture by living with host families, attending their schools exploring the rain forest. It is a highly recommended experience. This year's trip was to France led by Mrs. Jackson.

Golf

The Golf team had a fun season finishing at 2-12-2. This was a slightly dissapointing season, but plenty of fun was had on the course. The lineup consisted of Senior Captains: Scott Gannon and Ryan Stowers at the 1 and 2 spots. Next year's captains (Eric Adams and Mike Domurad) play in the 3rd and 4th spots. Juniors James Crook and Kevin Donnelly playing 5&6. With coach Stuart Hershman at the helm and Kevin McGovern at his side, The Mansfield Golf Team had one of its best and most enjoyable seasons ever. So, to all golfers: "Fairways and Greens," "That rate is right," & "Attack life."

"Or maybe I should try this angle."

The girls' cross country team had an indredible season despite their small team and young members. Although they did not win any meets, each girl excelled individually, some improving their time by several minutes. Congratulations to Lauren Buckel who was voted Sun Chronicle and Hockomock All-Star. The boys' team had an excellent season, proving themselves in the Hock. Congratulations to Bill Stanley for making it all the way to States.

VARSITY

The 1999 girls' varsity field hockey team can only be described in one word... courageous. Led by their coach Leda Levine and assisted by Laurie Hill and B.J. Sparrow, the girls enjoyed their cinderella season. The tri-captains Jen Kezer, Heather Shea and Kayla Pelchat, kept the team together while having the time of their lives. After their regular season they had a record of 9-4-5 and made it into the state tournament. Heart and determination brought the Hornets back with a win over Martha's Vineyard for the South Sectional title. Many individual awards went to deserving seniors such as Heather Shea, Kayla Pelchat, Kaitlin Columbare and Nichole Stearns. Thanks for a great season that we will all remember.

Another season, yet not just another team! With all of us affecting each other in such positive ways, we became more than a team...we became a family. We've gained so much more than any of us anticipated. Working to gain peer respect isn't always easy, but some how it happened. Fans cheering with us and schoolmates supporting us changed our outlook on our own sport. We have developed our self-confidence and self-respect. This has been a big building season. --And remember ladies-- "This is not a no brainer sport!"

The girl's soccer team had quite a season this year ending with an 11-4-3 record. This year's team was lead on and off the field by seniors Meg Maynard, Jen Volo, Cheryl Whitty, Nicole Anacone, Kelly O'Neil, Alicia Bell, Brooks Betts, Kim Durling and Susan Johnson. Although we lost in the first round of the tournament to Rockland, we had some spectacular wins throughout the season that made us the successful team that we were. The 1999 team would like to wish next year's team the best of luck and a "magic" season.

The soccer team had a great season. Varsity had a record of 13-9-1. The JV finished 3-9-1. The freshmen ended at 3-5-1. Varsity Captains Matt Noonan and Isaac Binney along with Coach Giandolludis led their team to the State tournament. Matt Noonan, Robby McLacklin, and Brett Certuse received many accolades including The Sun Chronicle All-Stars.

Joel Antolini, Assistant Principal

To The Class of the Year 2000:

Congratulations on having the distinction of being the first graduation class from Mansfield High School in the new Millenium.When most of you began your educational career as Kindergarteners in the Mansfield Public Schools in the Fall of the year 1987, I would submit that a few of you could imagine the dramatic changes that we would be experiencing over the next thirteen years. Throughout your educational career, your parents and teachers have provided you with core values that will allow you to successfully complete in a challenging and changing economic landscape.For the past four years one of those people who has had a profound effect upon your educational development will be celebrating his last graduation for Mansfield High School.You should be honored that Mr. Rosa has chosen to end his distinguished career with the Class of the Year 2000. As your Superintendent of Schools, I am confident that the community of Mansfield has provided you with a nurturing environment and a strong work ethic to begin your life's work. Our encouragement, thoughts and prayers to the Class of 2000!

Sincerely,
John A. Moretti , Superintendent of Schools

Dear Members of the Class of 2000:

Congratulations upon your completion of all the requirements necessary for you to receive your high school diploma and for becoming a member of Mansfield High School's first New Millenium class. Your class has performed well academically, athletically, and artistically throughout your four years at Mansfield, and I'm confident that your accomplishments will continue to grow as your progress in life.

I especially want to thank you for the role you played in making my last year at Mansfield High so enjoyable. The spirit and leadership you provided was highly commendable.

Best wishes for success in the future.

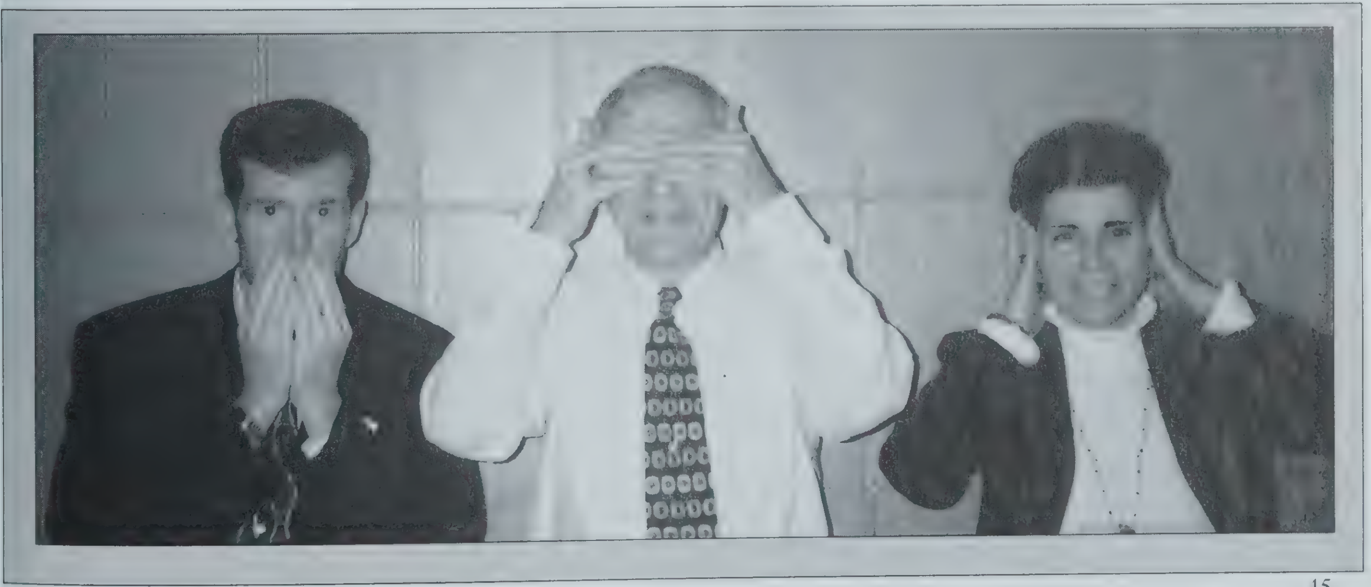
Sincerely
Edward A. Rosa , Principal

Congratulations to the Class of 2000. As you begin the next phase of your life always remember that you have a home at Mansfield High School filled with caring adults who are willing to help if the "going gets tough" and willing to share in the celebration of your future success. I wish all of you well.

Sincerely
Katherine C. Flaherety , Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2000, do not be afraid to demonstrate your talents, as that is the path to success. I wish all of you success and happiness at whatever you choose to do.

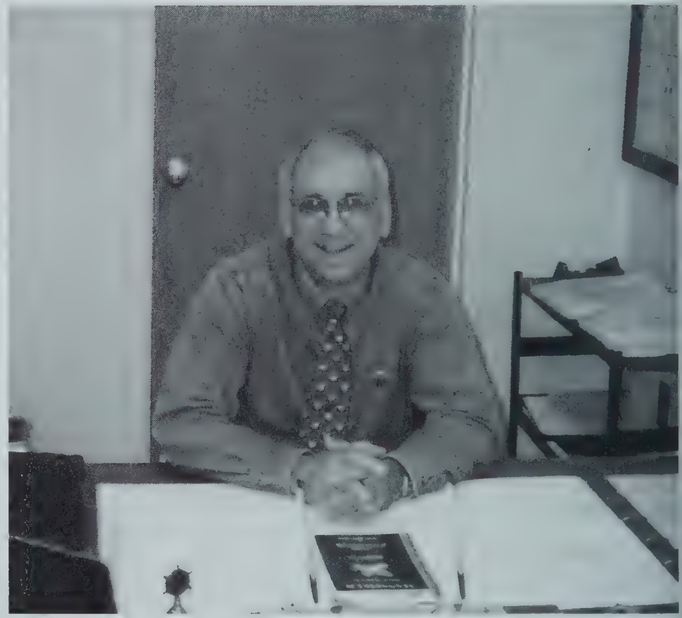
Sincerely,
Joel Antolini , Assistant Principal



20 Years of Excellence

Dedication

Dear Mr. Rosa,



Thank you for your 20 years of hard work and dedication you have contributed here at MHS. We really appreciate your support and enthusiasm toward all of the activities at MHS: Drama, Music and Athletics, to name a few. We will always remember your willingness to help, your concern for our well-being, and your constant motivation that drives us to suceed. As you told us when we were freshmen, "you now have a clean slate", We hope that you will fill your clean slate with many wonderful experiences.

Girls Basketball

The girls basketball team got off to a rocky start this season but with a lot of hard work and dedication, finished the season 7-13. Playing in one of the toughest leagues in the state, they gained a lot of respect from their opponents and fans. Behind the senior leadership of Katie, Kelly, Nichole, Kayla, and Brooks, the team built a special friendship which helped them through the tough times during the season. The underclassmen earned their respect and proved to be players of the future.

Ice Hockey

This was a tough year for the Mansfield Ice Hornets, finishing at 4-12-4. The Hornets earned wins over Foxboro twice, Medway and Oliver Ames, and ties with Bishop Feehan twice, Attleboro and Oliver Ames. The Hornets are looking ahead towards the future. There were six Freshmen on this year's team, and we are only losing four Seniors, captains Ryan Stowers and Kevin Sullivan, Chris Palie and Matt Rae. There is a strong core returning for the Ice Hornets.

The girls Winter Track Team had an unlucky season this year finishing with a 2 - 6 record. Excellent sportsmanship and athleticism was shown by all. Congratulations to Rachel Henderson, Jen George, Melanie Vaughn, Lauren Manarino, Alicia Bell, Kaitlin Columbare, and Cheryl Whitty who ran at the Class C State Championship meet in Boston. The Seniors would like to wish lots of luck to next year's winter track team, and a top spot at the Hockomock Champoionship Meet.

Dear Rachael-

As we marvel today at the wonderful young woman you have become, we cannot help but reflect on our memories of the great child you have always been. We recognize the same sweetness, intelligence and personality that has always been a central part of you, and we are filled with pride as we ponder the character patches that have filled out the mosaic you have become today - patches of the responsibility you show in your work, the determination you've mustered to achieve academic honors, the kindness you offer so easily to your young students and the hard work you have shown to beome the graduate you are today. And yet, we know you have only just begun. . .

Stay true to yourself, and have fun. You're going to be great.

We are so proud of what you have accomplished;

who you have become;

and what you are striving to achieve.

And above all else.....

Remember,
you are loved.

The dreadful events that plagued the life of John F. Kennedy Jr. painted an eerie backdrop for the tragic plane crash that killed him, his wife, Carolyn Bessette Kennedy, and her sister, Lauren Bessette. The bodies of the three victims were recovered by divers in the Atlantic about seven miles off of Martha's Vineyard, where the Piper Saratoga II Kennedy was piloting crashed five days before. In the end, the nation and the world was left to mourn the loss of a man they came to know as a little boy, saluting the casket of his assassinated father, a boy who grew up to inherit the bittersweet Kennedy legacy.

The San Antonio Spurs held off the New York Knicks in June to win the team's first-ever NBA championship. The Spurs, led by David Robinson and Tim Duncan, clinched all four playoff series games on the road, completing the playoffs with a 15-2 record. The team also set an NBA single-season record with 12 consecutive victories in the postseason.

Robert Downey Jr., the one-time Oscar nominee and star of such films as "Natural Born Killers" and "Less Than Zero," was sentenced in August to three years in prison for violating his probation on drugs and weapons charges. The 34-year-old actor had made several attempts at rehabilitation prior to his latest arrest, and had spent more than six months behind bars.

A controversial goal in the third overtime lifted the Dallas Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Finals in June. On the winning goal, Dallas' Brett Hull took two whacks at the puck and finally knocked it past the Sabres' fallen goalie. After further review, the shot was ruled fair to give Dallas its first championship in franchise history.

The U.S. women's soccer team battled for 120 minutes to a scoreless tie before defeating China, 5-4, on penalty kicks in the World Cup Final. The exciting win captured the hearts of America, resulting in hero status for the team's 20 members and a shot in the arm for women's sports overall. Additionally, the World Cup championship was credited for boosting soccer's marginal stature in the United States.

June 1 — American Airlines Flight 1420 carrying 145 passengers skidded off a runway, broke apart and burst into flames during an emergency landing at a Little Rock, Ark., airport. Eleven people were killed and at least 83 others were injured in the crash, which occurred during a gusty hail storm. Winds of 90 mph caused the aircraft to slam into a steel light pole, split into pieces and catch fire, coming to a rest at the edge of the Arkansas River.

June 7 — The WNBA announced its selection of Indiana, Miami, Portland, Ore., and Seattle as expansion franchises to begin play in the 2000 season. The additions brought the two-year-old women's basketball league to 16 teams. Eight teams were part of the WNBA when play began in 1997 with franchises in Charlotte, Cleveland, Houston, New York, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento and Utah. Teams were added in Detroit and Washington before the 1998 season, and in 1999, Minnesota and Orlando joined the league.

June 15 — Rosa Parks, 86, the black woman whose refusal to give up her bus seat to a white man made her a symbol for civil rights, received the Congressional Gold Medal, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. Congress, during a ceremony in the Capitol Rotunda. She was lauded by President Clinton and House and Senate leaders. As a recipient of the award, Parks was in elite company with people like Nelson Mandela and Mother Teresa having been honored before her.

June 29 — Sportscaster Marv Albert was rehired by NBC as one of the announcers on the network's NBA crew. The move came two years after he was fired in a lurid sex scandal, which resulted in a guilty plea for sexual assault of a woman in a Virginia hotel room. In December, it was announced that Albert would return next fall to his former position as NBC's lead basketball announcer.

July 23 — The third time was not a charm for the Woodstock rock festival, when the third such event in 30 years endured riot-like conditions. Riled-up rock fans went on a rampage toward the end of the weekend event, starting fires and trashing the Rome, N.Y., concert site. Surprisingly, no one was seriously injured and ultimately the fans supported participating bands such as Kid Rock, Rage Against the Machine and the Dave Matthews Band.

August [illegible] — Talk, the much-ballyhooed new magazine from former New Yorker Editor Tina Brown, hit newsstands. The first issue featured a cover story on Hillary Rodham Clinton, talking candidly about the indiscretions of her husband, Bill, and her future in politics. In a sly political move, New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani, Hillary's likely opponent in the 2000 Senate race, rejected the original site for the magazine's launch party, which eventually took place at the Statue of Liberty.

August 22 — Martin Lawrence was hospitalized and subsequently fell into a coma after collapsing from heat stroke a month before the scheduled opening of his new movie, "Blue Streak." It was later reported that Lawrence had been jogging in heavy clothing with temperatures soaring into the 90s. The comic actor's publicist insisted it was all part of Lawrence's normal workout routine. Lawrence completely recovered after about three weeks in the hospital and was released just in time for the premiere.

August 31 — The final Lilith Fair gig was performed in Edmonton, Alberta, culminating the fourth summer for the touring music festival that broke new ground for female musicians. Hurricane Floyd brought deadly flood waters to North Carolina in September, killing more than 50 people and causing in excess of $5 billion in damage. Towns in 61 counties were inundated by flooding in what was deemed the worst disaster in the state's history. Floyd was part of one of the worst hurricane seasons the East Coast had seen in more than 20 years.

September 15 — A man spouting anti-Baptist rhetoric burst into the Wedgwood Baptist Church in Forth Worth, Texas, and opened fire, killing seven people before sitting in a pew and turning the gun on himself. Seven others were wounded, three of them seriously, in the shooting rampage, which happened during a service for teenagers. More than 150 people were in attendance. The shooting was one of several that occurred during the year, an ominous trend that sparked a nationwide debate on gun control.

September 25 — Federal health experts announced that the deaths of three people in New York City, originally attributed to mosquito-borne St. Louis encephalitis, were actually caused by a rare bird virus, not previously seen in the Western Hemisphere. Officials said the fatalities, in addition to more than 100 cases of illness, had been reclassified and were now being linked to a virus called the West Nile fever-like virus. Since the virus was usually found in Africa, they could not explain how it had traveled to New York.

September 27 — A sellout crowd of nostalgic Detroit baseball fans joined Hall of Fame players and the ghosts of past glory to say farewell to Tiger Stadium after 88 seasons. The American League team would be moving to the $290 million Comerica Park about a mile away. Tiger Stadium, home of some of the greatest players in baseball history, including Ty Cobb, Hank Greenberg and Al Kaline, opened April 20, 1912, the same day as Fenway Park in Boston, which would now be the league's oldest stadium.

October 5 — MCI WorldCom Inc., the country's second-largest long-distance company, announced it would purchase Sprint Corp., the No. 3 carrier, in a deal valued at $129 billion. The deal would be the biggest corporate takeover in history. The combined company, to be called WorldCom, would make up about 30 percent of the $90 billion U.S. long-distance market as a result of the merger. A short time later, the proposed merger came under criticism in the United States because of concern over its impact on the long-distance telephone and Internet access markets. Nearly six months passed without resolution and the merger remained on hold.

October 6 — Houston won the rights to the NFL's 32nd franchise, beating out Los Angeles and its distinction as the second-largest TV market in the nation. Houston businessman Bob McNair paid $700 million for the expansion franchise, the highest price ever for a sports team in the United States. NFL owners approved the measure, returning an NFL team to Houston just three years after the Oilers left for Tennessee. As part of the expansion, which will begin with the 2001 season, owners also voted to realign the league.

A six-year-old Cuban boy became the focus of an international tug-of-war after fishermen found him clinging to an inner tube two miles off the Florida coast. Little Elian Gonzalez was caught in the middle of a custody fight between U.S. relatives in Miami's politically powerful Cuban community and his father and grandmothers living in Cuba. The fight escalated far beyond a family feud and was the latest chapter in a decades-long battle between anti-Castro Cubans and Cuban President Fidel Castro. While the Cuba Foreign Ministry demanded the boy's return, lawyers in the United States filed a petition for political asylum.

NASA's continued efforts to probe the meteorological mysteries of Mars were dashed in December when, for the second time in three months, a space mission to Mars was lost. First, the Mars Climate Orbiter, a robotic satellite, was lost when scientists mixed up English and metric measurements. Then, the Mars Polar Lander and its two surface probes vanished without trace. The two missions were poised to search for water on Mars, vitally important to determine if life might have once existed there. In the end, losses totaled $265 million, capping one of NASA's most embarrassing moments in history.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin unexpectedly resigned on the eve of the new millennium, apologizing to the nation for what he characterized as a failure to fulfill their dreams during his eight years of power. Yeltsin stressed that he was not leaving because of his health, but because "it was time to go." Deteriorating health and alleged corruption marred much of his presidency, however he will forever be remembered for dismantling communism in the former Soviet Union.

Anti-trade protesters descended upon the streets of Seattle to rally for human rights, labor, the environment and other concerns during World Trade Organization meetings in December. The protests turned violent and resulted in widespread vandalism, causing police to use tear gas and fire rubber bullets on people. The National Guard was deployed, a curfew was set and more than 500 people were arrested. No serious injuries resulted, but downtown merchants reported more than $2 million in property damage and $17 million in lost retail sales.

The 20th anniversary of the 1979 hostage crisis in Iran was observed in November. In Hermitage, Pa., ceremonies were held at the site where 444 flags still fly in remembrance, one flag for each day the 52 U.S. hostages were in captivity. Activities in Iran were a little more volatile with thousands of Iranians converging on the former U.S. embassy in Tehran, many of whom chanted "Death to America!" Although tensions between the two countries eased somewhat during the 1990s, Iran continued to reject U.S. offers for official talks.

November 1 — In yet another steamy scene from FOX's highly rated sitcom "Ally McBeal," Calista Flockhart and Lucy Liu locked lips in a forbidden kiss that had the network squawking at first. It took some doing, but producer David E. Kelley convinced the network to air the kiss, which resulted in one of the show's highest rated episodes.

November 4 — The Cleveland Indians were sold for a record $320 million in an agreement between owner Richard Jacobs and lawyer Larry Dolan and Dolan family trusts. With Jacobs at the helm, the Indians went from a last-place finisher to a perennial powerhouse, having won the American League Central Division for five years straight. The transaction, which must gain the approval of major league owners, was expected to close by the end of March.

November 10 — From off the dusty shelf, the Eagles' first greatest hits album was certified by the Recording Industry Association of America as the top-selling record of all time. The distinction came more than two decades after the album's release with the U.S. sale of its 26 millionth copy. Michael Jackson's "Thriller" previously held the record with 25 million copies sold.

November 11 — An explosion at a Flint, Mich., nursing home killed seven people and injured more than 20 others. All 94 residents of the Clara Barton Terrace Convalescent Home were in the building at the time of the blast, which led to the collapse of part of the building into its basement and shook homes in a three-block radius. Fire officials later determined that a gas boiler in the basement exploded.

November 30 — Disney/Pixar's "Toy Story 2," the animated sequel with Tom Hanks and Tim Allen reprising the voices of talking toys Woody the sheriff and space ranger Buzz Lightyear, broke Thanksgiving box office records by taking in an impressive $81 million in five days. Twelve Texas A&M University students were killed in November when thousands of logs being erected for a bonfire collapsed. Sixty to 70 students were working to assemble the logs for the bonfire when the structure, standing 45 feet tall, collapsed. The bonfire, a school tradition dating back to 1909, was scheduled on the eve of Texas A&M's annual football game against its arch-rival, the University of Texas. An emotional tribute to the 12 fallen students was held during halftime of the game, which Texas A&M went on to win.

December 1 — Pete Rose, baseball's all-time hits king, took his case for reinstatement to the Internet. Having been banned from any participation in Major League Baseball for more than 10 years for illegal betting, Rose signed up with sportcut.com, a sports and entertainment web site, that prompted fans to vote on whether Rose should be let back into the game. By the end of the day, the web site had received more than two million hits and over 100,000 visitors had signed the petition to reinstate Rose. The 4,256 hits and .303 lifetime batting average of the former Cincinnati Reds and Philadelphia Phillies star made him a shoo-in for the Hall of Fame, if only the ban could be lifted. Charles Darwin developed one of the most portant scientific theories of the millenni-
n. Published in 1859, his theories of evolun and natural selection, although widely cepted today, still provoke controversy. Yet arwinism remains one of the most suc-ssful scientific theories ever generated.
The issue of slavery in the western territo-s helped trigger a civil war in the nited States in 1861. Slavery was abanned in the industrialized north, opposed President Abraham Lincoln. In the agricul-ral south, where slavery was embraced, 11 southern states seceded and formed the Confederacy. The north prevailed in the war, which claimed more than 600,000 lives.

The first manned flight of a heavier-than-air craft by the Wright brothers in 1903 was a monumental benchmark, achieving one of humanity's wildest dreams. On a pleasant December day, Orville Wright took to the sky for 12 seconds over the sand dunes of Kitty Hawk, N.C., in an airplane he designed with his brother, Wilbur. Like kids with a new toy, the two brothers, bicycle mechanics by trade, took turns flying the craft made of wood, wire and cloth, at one point keeping it aloft for 59 seconds. The Wright brothers' craft, which they called the Flyer, made what was once considered impossible possible and opened the heavens for the future advancement of flight. Those advancements happened very quickly with nearly all the elements of the modern airplane in place a mere 15 years after Orville and Wilbur's historic day at Kitty Hawk.

Henry Ford may not have invented the automobile, but he was responsible for the beginning of the automobile age. In 1908, Ford unveiled the Model T, a car for the great multitude priced at $850. He eventually sold more than 15 million of them, using revolutionary mass production methods that turned out a vehicle every 24 seconds. Before the Ford assembly line and the Model T, the automobile had just been a toy of the rich. It soon became a necessity of life, spawning gas stations, superhighways and traffic jams around the world.

World War I, also called the Great War, began in 1914 when a Serbian nationalist assassinated Archduke Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne. Austria-Hungary immediately declared war on Serbia, which prompted other declarations of war, ultimately leading to every major power in Europe getting involved. On one side were the Allies — chiefly France, Britain, Russia, and the U.S. — and on the other were the Central Powers made up of Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey. The war, considered one of the bloodiest in history, ended with the signing of the armistice in 1918. In the end, 10 million were dead and 20 million wounded. This unprecedented bloodshed contributed to a general loathing against war, leading many to support multinational disarmament pacts and the newly formed League of Nations.

Einstein. Freud. Picasso. Three fascinating men who left an indelible mark on the 20th Century. Albert Einstein revolutionized the theory of light, greatly advanced physics and scientific inquiry, and changed forever man's view of the universe. Sigmund Freud developed free association, broadened our view of human nature and sexuality and accelerated the age of self-examination. Pablo Picasso helped create Cubism, pioneered innovations in sculpture and lithography and experimented with new media. All three captivated imaginations around the world with their magnificent intelligence and compelling personalities.

The stock market crash in 1929 was an eerie harbinger of the Great Depression, which hung like a black cloud over the 1930s. Between Sept. 3 and Oct. 29, the Dow lost 120 points or nearly one third. That final day, dubbed "Black Tuesday" in the press, wiped out everyone as stock markets all over Europe reacted to the sell off. And, when it seemed like it couldn't get any worse, it did. On Nov. 13, the Dow closed at 199. The New York Stock Exchange fell from $80 billion to $50 billion between Sept. 3 and Nov. 13. The damage was done and the Great Depression began.

The horrific actions of Germany's Adolf Hitler and his Nazi regime against the Jews of Europe, coupled with similar totalitarian regimes in Japan and Italy, launched the Second World War in 1939. With the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor in 1941, the U.S. joined Great Britain and the Allied Forces to fight the aggression of the Axis powers. Decisive victories by the Allies led to Italy's surrender in 1943. Germany surrendered unconditionally in 1945, when Hitler committed suicide and the German resistance collapsed. Later that year, with U.S. troops poised to invade Japan's home islands, President Harry Truman ordered the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Japan quickly announced its surrender, thereby bringing to an end the costliest war in history.

In 1928, General Electric engineer Ernst F.W. Alexanderson laid the crude foundation for television, one of the most powerful, influential media in history. Nineteen years later, with the broadcast of the 1947 World Series, television's growing importance was clinched. By the end of the 1950s, nearly 90 percent of U.S. homes could boast at least one TV set. The world no longer needed to be imagined — now it could be seen and heard.

Racial unrest simmered to a boil in 1955 with two key events sparking one of the greatest civil rights movements in history. The first involved a young black girl named Linda Brown, who questioned her inability to attend the school nearest her home. Brown v. the Board of Education of Topeka eventually resulted in a Supreme Court decision banning segregation in public schools and opening the door to equal access to education for blacks in America. That was just the beginning. A short time after the Brown decision, Rosa Parks, a 42-year-old black woman, refused to give up her seat to a white passenger on a bus in Montgomery, Ala., and was arrested. Martin Luther King Jr. got involved at that point and carried the torch for his people until he was assassinated 13 years later.

The aspirations of a young leader and a supporting nation came to an abrupt halt on Nov. 22, 1963, when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated by rifle fire while being driven in an open car through the streets of Dallas. JFK's assassination shocked a nation and profoundly changed the way people viewed the world. At 46, Kennedy became the fourth president to be assassinated and the eighth to die in office. The alleged assassin, 24-year-old Lee Harvey Oswald, was shot and killed by nightclub owner Jack Ruby two days later, leaving behind only suspicions of what his motives were and whether or not he was the lone gunman. Although the Warren Commission determined Oswald probably acted alone, the House Select Committee on Assassinations concluded in 1979 that a conspiracy was likely and that it may have involved organized crime. These differing opinions served to bolster the black cloud of controversy that has continued to surround the Kennedy assassination.

Electrifying audiences with their fresh musical talents and boyish good looks, the Beatles took America by storm with their inaugural performance on "The Ed Sullivan Show" in February 1964. Rock music would never be the same as the English quartet's music evolved from a tight rhythm and blues to allusive lyricism. The impact of the Beatles revolutionized the music industry and, in one way or another, touched the lives of all who heard them. The Beatles dominated the 1960s far beyond their music, transforming the world by ushering in a societal shift in which youth culture assertively took over and began to thrive.

The first U.S. troops were committed to Vietnam in 1961 by President John F. Kennedy at the request of South Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem. Their mission was to help fight North Vietnamese communists controlled by Ho Chi Minh and southern rebels of the Viet Cong. The number of troops committed was minimal at first, and the American people accepted the action, believing it was necessary to halt the spread of communism. By 1968, U.S. troop build-up in Vietnam would reach its peak of 549,000 troops. Although there had been notable anti-war sentiment from the beginning, opposition eventually grew to a two to one margin. By 1973, when the war ended and U.S. troops returned home, two to three million Vietnamese and 58,000 Americans had been killed.

What was once thought to be impossible became a reality in 1969, when Apollo 11 astronauts set foot on the moon. Those historic steps were taken by Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Neil A. Armstrong, who descended to the moon's surface and landed their lunar module in the Sea of Tranquility. Armstrong stepped first and addressed the world with what has become one of the best-known phrases of modern times: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." It was also a giant leap ahead for Americans in the space race with Russia. Six additional Apollo missions were made before the end of the program in December 1972 and, with the exception of Apollo 13, all landed successfully on the lunar surface.

The explosion of the space shuttle Challenger in 1986, resulting in the deaths of all seven astronauts aboard, horrified the nation and the world and took a severe blow to NASA's fledgling shuttle program. Challenger exploded 73 seconds after liftoff from Kennedy Space Center in Florida, as millions watched on television. A presidential panel determined that the fatal flaw was not in Challenger, but rather a faulty sealant ring in one of two 149-foot tall solid rocket boosters. Dead as a result of the worst disaster in the history of space exploration was Christa McAuliffe, who was to be the first teacher and private citizen in space, and crew members Frank Scobee, Michael Smith, Judith Resnik, Ellison Onizuka, Ronald McNair and Gregory Jarvis. Two years passed before another shuttle was launched into space.

The first widely used commercial computer, Univac I, was built in 1951 for the U.S. Census Bureau. From vacuum tube logic gates to transistors to microchips, powerful desktop computers and tiny microprocessors helped shape late 20th Century life. Found everywhere by 1990, computers evolved to move the world out of the space age and into the Internet-driven information age. With the Internet and electronic mail, or e-mail, all corners of the globe were now at the computer user's fingertips.

George C. Scott, the masterful actor and director best known for his portrayal of Gen. George S. Patton, died in September of an aortic aneurysm. Scott's role in the 1970 film, "Patton," earned him the Oscar for best actor, an award he refused to accept because of his belief that the Academy Awards were offensive and innately corrupt. Scott received two other Academy Award nominations for best supporting actor in 1962 and for best actor in 1972, and also won an Emmy for his work in the 1998 remake of "12 Angry Men," which aired on cable television.

Clayton Moore, a.k.a. the Lone Ranger, died in July of a heart attack at the age of 85. The masked hero of television and films became an American icon, racing on horseback to the "William Tell Overture" and with his customary cry of "Hi-Yo, Silver!" Having been an acrobat before becoming an actor, Moore was also well-known for doing his own stunts on film.

"Peanuts" creator Charles Schulz, 77, died of colon cancer on Feb. 19, just one day before his farewell comic strip was to appear in Sunday newspapers. In his final daily strip, published in early January, Schulz thanked millions of fans all over the world for embracing the comic strip he had penned for more than 50 years. At the end of its historic run, "Peanuts" appeared in 2,600 newspapers in 75 countries and 21 languages, making it the world's most widely read comic strip.

Walter Payton, the NFL's all-time rushing leader, died of cancer in November, just 10 months after announcing he had a rare liver disease and would need a transplant to live. Nicknamed "Sweetness" for his effortless running style and caring personality, the Hall of Fame running back set 10 all-time NFL records, including most career rushing yards, 16,726, and most career carries at 3,838. Payton's single-game mark of 275 rushing yards against Minnesota in 1977 is a record many believe will never be broken.

Basketball legend Wilt Chamberlain, 63, died in October of an apparent heart attack. Considered one of the greatest centers to ever play the game, Chamberlain's 100-point game in 1962 remains as one of the most revered records in all of sports. His hall-of-fame career with the Philadelphia 76ers and Los Angeles Lakers also includes NBA records for most rebounds in a game, 55, and for averaging over 50 points per game for an entire season.

WE DID IT!!!

Dear Rachael-

As we marvel today at the wonderful young woman you have become, we cannot help but reflect on our memories of the great child you have always been. We recognize the same sweetness, intelligence and personality that has always been a central part of you, and we are filled with pride as we ponder the character patches that have filled out the mosaic you have become today - patches of the responsibility you show in your work, the determination you've mustered to achieve academic honors, the kindness you offer so easily to your young students and the hard work you have shown to beome the graduate you are today. And yet, we know you have only just begun. . .

Stay true to yourself, and have fun. You're going to be great.

We are so proud of

what you have accomplished;

who you have become;

and what you are striving to achieve.

And above all else.....

Remember,
you are loved.

We are open 7 days a week!

To Our Dear Son Brian Christopher Rota,

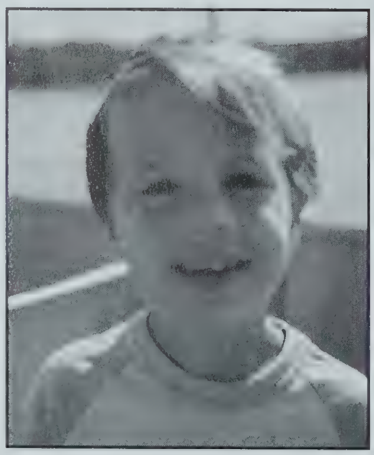
We can't believe you are a Mansfield High School Class of 2000 graduate. It seems like yesteday, we took our little BriBri home from the hospital. Our almost Valentine's Day surprise. Memories of playing with the Beaver Boy, learning to spell Christopher, playing on the Mansfield Soccer Team and all your enthusiasm and excitement fill our hearts. You were always our happy-go-lucky, smiling child. We are so proud of you, Brian!!

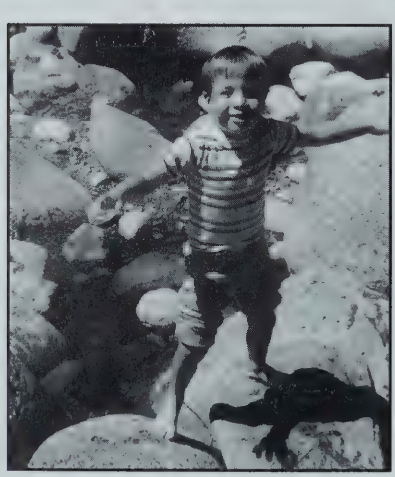
We wish you much love, luck and happiness for the future. We know you'll make a fantastic teacher. You've taught us so much already.

Keep Smiling!!

We love you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Kevin and Kristina





Alan, It seems like yesterday you were in Kindergarten, now you are graduating!! We will always be proud of you in whatever you do. Love,

Mom & Dad

Sara,

We are very proud of you and are excited as you enter the next chapter of your life. We are always there for you as you embrace your future and pray you will take time to "Cherish Today!"

Love,

Mom, Dad and Kristin

Dear Blake,

Congratulations on all your amazing accomplishments. I feel so proud of you and so very lucky to be your Mom. I love you big as the whole world. xoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxo

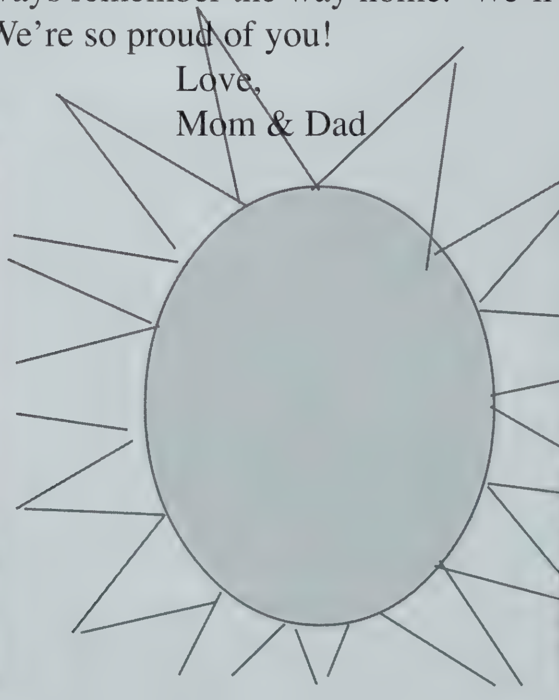
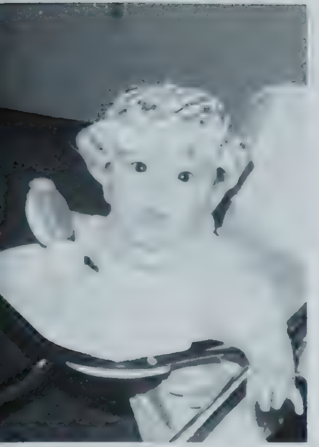
Lisa,
You have always made us proud of you. We wish you much happiness in whatever you do.
Love,
Mom, Steve, Amy,
Meghan & Penny

Allison,

It's so hard to believe that our baby girl is graduating from high school and ready to go off to college. There's so much that we need to say to you as you enter your adult life. First, thank you. Thank you for the many wonderful memories that our special ray of sunshine has brought into our lives. Continue to live your life with the passion that you carry in your heart every day. Continue to strive to do your best and be your best. Follow the path that lay ahead, but always remember the way home. We'll always be there for you.

We're so proud of you!
Love,
Mom & Dad





Peter:
The Lord placed a being in our care
He opened our hearts and said
"Love, if you dare." As you grew up we did all we could, Not always understanding this thing called "parenthood."Change is happening and we must admit, there's emptiness in our hearts that nothing seems to fit.We know that off into the world you will go. Life's lessons will be learned. The man inside will grow.You're in our hearts forever no matter where you roam. Our door is always open in the place called home. Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Melanie,
Your life is like a book with many chapters. As you close this chapter of your life with graduation, and turn the page to begin your college chapter, may yo find a safe haven for adventure, good friends for th future, and your personal path for success. Remember to take time to delight in turning back the pages to reminisce, to make time amidst your daily studies to enjoy the present, and to know that every page you turn ahead is an opportunity for the future. We hope the future holds all of life's blessings and that the upcoming chapters give you as much joy as the last 18 chapters of your life hav given us. We can't wait to share the rest of the boo with you. We're sure it will be a best seller.

Love and best wishes always, Honey,
Mom, Dad and Matt

Stephanie,
May the joy you have given us for the past 18 years
continue on as you journey through life.
